Section I: Steps Taken to Apply the Presumption of Openness

The guiding principle underlying the President’s FOIA Memorandum and the Attorney General’s FOIA Guidelines is the presumption of openness.

Please answer the following questions in order to describe the steps your agency has taken to ensure that the presumption of openness is being applied to all decisions involving the FOIA. You may also include any additional information you would like to describe how your agency is working to apply the presumption of openness.

FOIA Training:

1. Did your FOIA professionals or the personnel at your agency who have FOIA responsibilities attend any FOIA training or conference during the reporting period such as that provided by the Department of Justice?

   Yes, the Associate General Counsel attended “Refresher Training for FY 2014 Annual FOIA Reports and 2015 Chief FOIA Officer Reports” at the Department of Justice on October 7, 2014. She also attended a FOIA demo at the U.S. General Services Administration (GSA), which described their efforts to launch a single government-wide FOIA request intake system.

2. Provide an estimate of the percentage of your FOIA professionals and staff with FOIA responsibilities who attended substantive FOIA training during this reporting period.

   50% of our FOIA professionals and staff with FOIA responsibilities attended substantive FOIA training.

3. In the 2014 Chief FOIA Officer Report Guidelines, OIP asked agencies to provide a plan for ensuring that core, substantive FOIA training is offered to all agency FOIA professionals at least once each year. Please provide the status of your agency’s implementation of this plan.

   The Chief FOIA Officer assesses additional training needs and invites FOIA professionals to research and attend the appropriate trainings from the courses offered by OIP and OLE (http://www.justice.gov/oip/training-materials.html).

Discretionary Releases:

4. Does your agency have a distinct process or system in place to review records for discretionary release? If so, please briefly describe this process. If your agency is decentralized, please specify whether all components at your agency have a process or system in place?
As part of its normal FOIA review process, and in accordance with the presumption of openness, the IAF generally releases all documents that are responsive to a FOIA request unless there is a determination of foreseeable harm or legal bar against doing so. Such releases are made despite the formal applicability of a FOIA exemption.

5. During the reporting period did your agency make any discretionary releases of otherwise exempt information?

   No, because the agency never determined that any of the requested information could have been redacted under a FOIA exemption.

6. What exemptions would have covered the information that was released as a matter of discretion?

   N/A

7. Provide a narrative description, or some examples, of the types of information that your agency released as a matter of discretion during the reporting year.

   N/A

8. If your agency was not able to make any discretionary releases of information, please explain why.

   During the reporting period, the agency released every document in full it located that was responsive to each FOIA request it received.

   Other Initiatives:

9. If there are any other initiatives undertaken by your agency to ensure that the presumption of openness is being applied, please describe them here.

   The IAF is already ensuring that the presumption of openness is being applied.

Section II: Steps Taken to Ensure that Your Agency Has an Effective System in Place for Responding to Requests

As the Attorney General emphasized in his FOIA Guidelines, "[a]pplication of the proper disclosure standard is only one part of ensuring transparency. Open government requires not just a presumption of disclosure, but also an effective system for responding to FOIA requests." It is essential that agencies effectively manage their FOIA program.

Please answer the following questions to describe the steps your agency has taken to ensure that your management of your FOIA program is effective and efficient. You should also include any additional information that describes your agency’s efforts in this area.

Processing Procedures:

1. For Fiscal Year 2014, what was the average number of days your agency reported for adjudicating requests for expedited processing? Please see Section VIII.A. of your agency’s Fiscal Year 2014 Annual FOIA Report.

   The IAF did not adjudicate any requests for expedited processing in FY 2014.
2. If your agency’s average number of days to adjudicate requests for expedited processing was above ten calendar days, please describe the steps your agency will take to ensure that requests for expedited processing are adjudicated within ten calendar days or less.

N/A

Requester Services:

3. Does your agency notify requesters of the mediation services offered by the Office of Government Information Services (OGIS) at the National Archives and Records Administration?

The IAF shares the Department of Justice’s goal to prevent disputes in the first instance through OGIS mediation services. In FY 2014, the IAF did not encounter disputes with requesters and as such did not notify requestors of mediation services as a non-exclusive alternative to litigation.

4. When assessing fees, does your agency provide a breakdown of how FOIA fees were calculated and assessed to the FOIA requester? For example, does your agency explain the amount of fees attributable to search, review, and duplication?

The IAF did not assess any fees to any requests in FY 2014.

5. If estimated fees estimates are particularly high, does your agency provide an explanation for the estimate to the requester?

N/A

Other Initiatives:

6. If there are any other steps your agency has undertaken to ensure that your FOIA system operates efficiently and effectively, such as conducting self-assessments to find greater efficiencies, improving search processes, eliminating redundancy, etc., please describe them here.

The General Counsel serves as Chief FOIA Officer for the IAF. As a very small agency with so few requests, the IAF has been able to successfully manage its FOIA program efficiently and effectively with no backlog of FOIA requests or appeals.

The IAF strives to streamline the agency’s processing of FOIA requests however it can. It has revised its website, where the public and potential FOIA requesters can easily access the agency’s FOIA resources and useful information, and allows submission of FOIA requests via email. The FOIA webpage is directly linked to the IAF homepage, from which it is clearly visible and easily accessible. Additionally, the IAF has a FOIA-specific e-mail address that directs FOIA requests directly to the agency’s FOIA personnel without any intermediary steps. This email address is checked routinely, which allows for maximum efficiency in response time.

Section III: Steps Taken to Increase Proactive Disclosures

Both the President and Attorney General focused on the need for agencies to work proactively to post information online without waiting for individual requests to be received.

Please answer the following questions to describe the steps your agency has taken both to increase the amount of material that is available on your agency websites. In addition to the questions below, you should also describe any additional steps taken by your agency to make and improve proactive disclosures of information.
Inter-American Foundation 2015 Chief FOIA Officer Report

Posting Material:

1. Does your agency have a distinct process or system in place to identify records for proactive disclosures? If so, please describe your agency’s process or system.

   In an ongoing manner, the IAF systematically identifies, publishes, and posts new material in a user-friendly format for the general public. The IAF maintains and updates on a regular basis a comprehensive website on the Foundation, its policies and programs, www.iaf.gov. Information on our work in grant making, evaluation, ex-post assessments, grassroots development framework, stories from the field, and targeted initiatives can all be easily found on our website. FOIA personnel work with the IAF’s Office of Government and External Affairs to utilize the agency website, publications, and other forms of communication to make such material available.

2. Does your process or system involve any collaboration with agency staff outside the FOIA office? If so, describe this interaction.

   Yes, please see response to question 1.

3. Describe your agency’s process or system for identifying “frequently requested” records that should be posted online.

   FOIA personnel work with the IAF’s Office of Government and External Affairs to publish “frequently requested” information on our website’s FOIA E-reading Room. Because of our small number of FOIA requests, it is very easy for us to identify “frequently requested” records. For example, if we were to receive several requests on a given topic within a quarter, we would conclude that topic is of interest to the general public and we would post all responsive documents online.

4. Provide examples of material that your agency has posted this past reporting period, including links to the posted material.

   Some of the material made available on our website (http://www.iaf.gov/) includes the IAF’s Annual FOIA Reports in PDF and XML formats, the agency’s institutional video, other videos on IAF activities, the IAF’s Grassroots Development Journal, the agency’s Annual Report, and information regarding the grants awarded during the last fiscal year.

5. If there are any other steps your agency has taken to increase proactive disclosures, please describe them here.

   The IAF has utilized social media including Twitter (@IAFgrassroots), Vimeo, YouTube, and LinkedIn to proactively disclose information about agency activities. Future plans include the creation of a Facebook page and an Instagram account to further provide the public with information on the IAF.

Section IV: Steps Taken to Greater Utilize Technology

A key component of the President’s FOIA Memorandum was the direction to “use modern technology to inform citizens about what is known and done by their Government.” In addition to using the internet to make proactive disclosures, agencies should also be exploring ways to utilize technology in responding to requests.

Please answer the following questions to describe how your agency is utilizing technology to improve its FOIA administration and the public’s access to information. You should also include any additional information that describes your agency’s efforts in this area.

Making Posted Material More Useful:

1. Beyond posting new material, is your agency taking steps to make sure the posted information more useful to the public, especially to the community of individuals who regularly access your agency’s website? Steps can include soliciting feedback on the content and presentation of posted material, making information available through mobile applications, providing explanatory material, etc.

   The IAF has continued to expand its website to provide more helpful and detailed information to individuals who regularly access it and improves the site’s overall search capabilities. As we previously mentioned, the IAF has utilized social media including Twitter (@IAFgrassroots), Vimeo, YouTube, and LinkedIn to proactively disclose information about agency activities.

2. If yes, please provide examples of such improvements. If your agency is already posting material in its most useful format, please describe those efforts.

   The website provides contact information for feedback from visitors. As previously mentioned, future plans to further provide the public with information on the IAF include the creation of a Facebook page and an Instagram account.

3. Has your agency encountered challenges that make it difficult to post records you otherwise would like to post?

   IAF has not encountered any challenges that would make it difficult to post records it would otherwise like to post

4. If so, please briefly explain what those challenges are.

   N/A

Other Initiatives:

5. Did your agency post all of the required quarterly FOIA reports for Fiscal Year 2014?

   Yes, the IAF successfully post all four quarterly reports for Fiscal Year 2014.

6. If your agency did not successfully post all quarterly reports, with information appearing on FOIA.gov, please explain why and provide your agency’s plan for ensuring that such reporting is successfully accomplished for Fiscal Year 2015.

   N/A
7. Do your agency’s FOIA professionals use e-mail or other electronic means to communicate with requesters when feasible? If yes, what are the different types of electronic means utilized by your agency to communicate with requesters?

The IAF routinely responds to FOIA requests electronically via e-mail, and when appropriate, also responds via email to requests received by regular mail.

8. If your agency does not communicate electronically with requesters as a default, are there any limitation or restrictions for the use of such means? If yes, does your agency inform requesters about such limitations?

N/A

Section V: Steps Taken to Improve Timeliness in Responding to Requests and Reducing Backlogs

The President and the Attorney General have emphasized the importance of improving timeliness in responding to requests. This section of your Chief FOIA Officer Report addresses both time limits and backlog reduction. Backlog reduction is measured both in terms of numbers of backlogged requests or appeals and by looking at whether agencies closed their ten oldest requests, appeals, and consultations. For the figures required in this Section, please use those contained in the specified sections of your agency’s 2014 Annual FOIA Report and, when applicable, your agency’s 2013 Annual FOIA Report.

1. Does your agency utilize a separate track for simple requests?
